Additional Information – Travel Documents:

- Vanuatu – Australian and New Zealand passport holders do not require a visa for Vanuatu. Guests who are of a nationality that does require a visa for Vanuatu, are permitted to go ashore but only for the duration of the ship's visit. Should any guest need to terminate the cruise there, for any reason, a visa will be required
- New Caledonia – Australian and New Zealand passport holders, do not require a visa for New Caledonia. If you do not hold a passport from Australia or New Zealand, we recommend you check the requirements for your nationality here. If a visa is required, please ensure you obtain one ahead of embarkation day.

New Caledonia also requires all guests to hold valid international travel insurance. This is a requirement even if you do not plan on going ashore in New Caledonia and proof of your insurance must be shown at embarkation.

- Traveling with Minors - The parent or legal guardian of the minor, along with the Guardian who will be responsible for the minor during the cruise, must complete the Consent Form for Minors travelling with a Guardian. To download a copy of the form, click here.

The Guardian must present the completed form at check-in on embarkation day, as well as carry the completed form with them during the cruise.
